Money in Oil Stocks

Templor Ranch Oil Co.

will be selling within NINETY DAYS AT 50 CENTS.

is the statement made by Mr. N. F. Wilson, president of the Lincoln Mortgage and Loan Co., who has just returned from a trip to the Templor Ranch Oil Co.'s property. In THIRTY DAYS they will be able to pump their oil direct to Port Harford.

The public is just beginning to realize the WONDERFUL POSSIBILITIES of the Templor Ranch, consequently, the ACTIVITY in this stock.

Have you realized the GREAT OPPORTUNITY in store for you by buying TEMPLOR NOW? IT IS THE BEST BUY on the market.

I will not be able to sell this stock for 40 cents much longer to you, unless you come right to my office and make your first payment of one-fifth of the total purchase price. This is only $8 for every 100 SHARES of Templor you wish to buy, and the balance you can pay in four equal monthly installments.

By the time you have paid for your stock in full it has increased at least 25 PER CENT. and perhaps 50 PER CENT. IN VALUE! Where can you do better with your money?

"HEIR TO HOORAH" IS FIRST NIGHT SUCCESS

The Henry McRae Stock Company gave its initial production at the Opera House Saturday evening under conditions that assure it the unqualified support of the Honolulu public during the twelve weeks engagement of the company in Hawaii.

"The Heir to the Hoorah" was the opening performance that introduced the McRae Company to Honolulu and although the members had hardly recovered from the effects of their long sea voyage, the "first night" of the company in Honolulu showed that its reputation as a first class stock company has been well earned and deserved.

Miss Margaret Oswald, the leading lady of the company, did not have much opportunity to show her abilities as an artist of the first rank but the other plays that are to be given by the Henry McRae Stock Company while here will undoubtedly own, largely to their success to the captivating leading lady.

Henry McRae gave a convincing interpretation of Joe Lacey, the rough and wealthy miner who wins back the love of his wife and escapes from the domination of his mother-in-law at the same time.

He made a distinct impression with the audience Saturday night and showed himself to be a convincing actor of resource and ability.

Laura Hudson is an actress of attractive personality and her work as Kate Branton Saturday night made an excellent impression with her audience.

Laura McRae, the character woman, showed herself to be an actress of more than ordinary ability.

Edith Elliott, the ingenue of the company, scored one of the triumphs of the first night, and will have many opportunities to display her fascinating talents in the good things that are to come.

Like the women of the company, the men are exceptionally good. Lewis Morrison and Griffith Wray made the most of their parts and Charles Royal as the light comedian drew many a laugh from the audience and in the role of the embarrassed lover was a success in every way.

Ivan Miller as a near villain did not have much chance in the "Heir to the Hoorah" but his talents were indicated plainly enough to expect much of him in the future.

The house was sold out Saturday night and there is every indication that the McRae Company will have a successful season.

"The Heir to the Hoorah" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night and will be followed by "In the Bishop's Carriage."

The cast Saturday night was as follows:

Morris—An imported butler.....
Henry Alexander.....
Hush—Joe's Jap.....Mr. Elmo Klato
Mrs. H. J. L. Kent—A mother-in-law.....
Louis Melrose.....
Mrs. Joe Lacey—(Her daughter).....
Margaret Oswald.....
Joe Lacey—Owner of the Hoorah Mine.....
Henry McRae.....
Mrs. Kate Branton—Owner of the Katydill Mine.....
Laura Hudson.....
Dave Lacey—Joe's friend and partner.....
Louis Morrison.....
Bud Young—Joe's friend and partner.....
Chas. Royal.....
H. Van Rensselaer Kelly—A foreman for Joe from the East, Griffith Wray.....
Livingston Winthrop—A friend of Kelly from the East, Ivan Miller.....
Bill Ferguson—Half owner of the Killbear Mine.....
James Dillon.....
Lon Perry—Owner of the other half of the same mine.....
William Harris.....
Madge Casey—Maiden aunt of the Lacey.....
Edith Elliott.....
Dr. Whipple—A physician.....
Geo. Thompson.....
Johnson—A trained nurse.....
Julia Harned.....
